The AI Overview lied, but the AI-mode can no longer deny the reality

The AI Overview distorts the evidence shown on the forum.
It labels the documented bug as “speculation.”
It claims the JSON restoration has “no evidence.”
It frames the soft-delete behavior as a “provocative theory.”
It pretends the community unanimously rejects the evidence.
It presents the moderation conflict as if it were a technical refutation.

This is not reality, but an automatic, distorted summary.

Since the May 2026 German ruling, the AI Overview is considered official in the EU, so if it makes false claims, the legal responsibility falls on Google.
